Meochia Nochi Thompson is the CEO of Blessed Pen Ink, Corp. and Founder of its subsidiaries: BPI Chats: Life Chats and Chick Chats. She has worked as a Speaker, Poet, Writer, Producer and Marketing Consultant at Carol H. Williams Advertising, Fox News Chicago, Trammel Crow, etc. You can hear Meochia, Sundays, 12pm-2pm on Life Chats on Magic 104.9FM. It's the #1 Urban Radio Station in West Michigan at Town Square Media. Life Chats is ranked as one of the Top Weekend Shows according to Nielson ratings.

Meochia Thompson is known as an Inspirationalist. It's not unusual to see her having tea with a stranger at a local restaurant or business as a way of building relationships, nurturing dreams and drawing out purpose. She speaks at churches, colleges and organizations across the US and contributes to various publications and blogs like Women's LifeStyle magazine. She also teaches journalism workshops throughout Elementary and High Schools to keep the youth interested in reading, writing and education. Her life's mission is to Inspire, Equip and Invoke change in every soul she meets! Some describe her as a "morning cup of coffee". Her energy is contagious and her network is comprised of a culturally diverse audience looking to bring a refreshingly, positive change to their personal and professional lives.

Meochia gives back to the community by serving as the Leader of the Women's Ministry at Kentwood Community Church. She is also the Coordinator of RUTH (Reaching Up Towards Heaven), a mentoring program for girls ages 11 through college. She participates on a committee to assist women in escaping domestic violence situations through Safe Haven Ministries. She also spreads loads of love and hugs through her H.U.G. Campaign (Help Uplift Goodness) which supports charities and spreads a message of hope, healing and forgiveness.
